WELCOME to Udupi Cafe

authentic South Indian vegetarian cuisine

---

our story

---

Udupi is a coastal town in Southern India. It is famous for the historical Hindu temples built centuries ago and attracts visiting tourists and luminaries from around the world.

In the surrounding area the land is rich and fertile and is therefore ideally suitable for farming. The vicinity abounds in a plentiful supply of fresh vegetables and fruits, which are not only incorporated into the cuisine, but they also form the basis for many of the dishes. Here the food is spicier, less subtle, and rice is the staple of the diet.

Local cooks assume enormous pride in cultivating various recipes and Udupi has become internationally recognized for superb Indian vegetarian cuisine as a result.

Your visit today culminates in our ambition to prepare foods for you that we prepare in our beloved homeland. Rest assured we market, prepare, and serve only the finest ingredients available. We trust you will enjoy our meal and our grateful staff is happy to accommodate you during your visit.
